Foundation and Chapter Overview

The Lake Michigan Junior Golf Association was established in December 2006 to provide junior golf tournaments in West Michigan to all youth. In 2011, The Lake Michigan Junior Golf Association shifted its focus to establishing a chapter of The First Tee in West Michigan. June 23, 2011, The First Tee of West Michigan became a chapter of The First Tee.

The First Tee of West Michigan is one of 150 chapters worldwide that are part of a global non-profit youth initiative. The First Tee was created in 1997 by the World Golf Foundation to use golf and character education to provide young people of all ethnic and economic backgrounds an opportunity to develop life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity and sportsmanship. By engaging youth in a combination of life skills and golf activities, they are exposed to positive traits that will help them become valuable assets to their community and eventually achieve success in life. The First Tee Life Skills & Golf Experience is the unique component that sets The First Tee apart from many other successful junior golf programs.

The First Tee of West Michigan worked with more than 1,200 participants, and managed a nonprofit donor base of more than 1,500 active individuals.

Position Description

This newly created position for our chapter will be charged with creating, implementing and overseeing the execution of external communications that grows awareness, youth participation, and volunteer involvement while driving new individual and corporate donor dollars. This individual will design and develop print and online collateral, email marketing, create website content, manage social media, and be responsible for media relations that tell The First Tee's story on a cost-efficient marketing budget. This position will also coach sessions with students 3-4 days per week, including Saturdays during some portions of the year.

This position will have the opportunity to create a committee through interns and junior coaches to support the chapter's mission through marketing and communications efforts. A Bachelor's degree in Communications, Marketing, Graphic Design, Business, or Sports Management is preferred. A PGA Professional is preferred.

The ideal candidate has outstanding communication, interpersonal and organizational skills, strong writing and graphics design ability, an optimistic 'can do' attitude, and is proactive and flexible. The ideal candidate has two plus years of experience. The candidate selected will also have a passion for working with youth and knowledge of the game of golf.
