

Position

Program Director, First Tee – The Lowcountry

Organization

First Tee – The Lowcountry will create experiences that build character to empower kids to face the challenges they encounter throughout their lives and to assist them by encouraging continuous personal growth. By seamlessly integrating the game of golf with a life skills curriculum, First Tee – The Lowcountry creates active learning experiences that build inner strength, self-confidence and resilience that kids can carry to everything they do. These character education programs are offered at golf courses, schools and youth centers throughout Beaufort and Jasper counties in South Carolina.

Position Summary

The Program Director (PD), reporting to the Executive Director (ED) who is a First Tee Master Coach, will provide oversight and direction to fulfill the organization's mission in Beaufort and Jasper counties in South Carolina. Inspired by a genuine passion for empowering and helping youth succeed in life, s/he will work diligently to promote and expand the efforts of the organization.

Reporting to and collaborating with the ED, the PD will oversee program design, implementation, evaluation of programs and curriculum, and support the overall strategic and operational plan for First Tee – The Lowcountry. In accordance with the standards set by the ED, the PD will coordinate the program coaches, volunteers, partnerships, events, data reporting, policies, procedures, and safety protocols.

The PD will represent the chapter to their community. S/he will embody the First Tee's strong commitment to its youth and will promote the organization throughout the community.

Key Criteria for success of the role include:

- Ensuring program effectiveness through evaluation of quantitative and qualitative program analytics
- Expand and scale First Tee's programming in additional high-priority, at risk neighborhoods
- Excellent administrative and communication skills.
- Embrace the importance of youth safety and fulfill safety protocols;
- Desire for continuous professional and personal development
- Enjoy coaching kids, volunteers and adults in a fun, safe environment

Responsibilities

- Oversee all First Tee on-course and community programs. Top priority will be retention and advancement at this location and maximizing the number of certifying participants;

- Ensure top quality program delivery, leading instruction of First Tee classes and on-course playing opportunities, organize and manage volunteer recruitment, training and management. Possess or gain certification in First Tee life skills curriculum training;
- Manage all Salesforce database records. This includes but is not limited to: tracking certifying and community partnership participant numbers and demographic information, providing reports for ED/Board;
- Communicate with parents/participants via website, email, social media and phone calls;
- Work cohesively with ED to schedule programs and post online when registration is open;
- Effectively schedule coaches/volunteers to teach/lead classes that are appropriate for their skill set and teach/lead classes as needed;
- Collect and periodically submit pictures, videos and descriptions of programs for posting on the chapter's social media accounts;
- Uphold all Child Protection Policies, background checks, and training as set forth by First Tee HQ

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree preferred in the area of sports administration, business management, education, recreation or related field;
- 2-3 years' experience managing a team of coaches/volunteers; preferably in a youth development setting;
- Recognized as a First Tee Coach or willingness to immediately embark upon the First Tee Coach Program upon hire;
- Demonstrate exceptional communication, fiscal management and managerial skills;
- Experience in identifying and managing program staff and volunteers;
- Charismatic, personable and motivational in working with youth and volunteers;
- Passionate youth development ambassador with experience promoting access to and involvement in programs by youth participants, their families, volunteers, donors, donor prospects and allied partners;
- General knowledge of sports and enthusiasm for golf and prior direct experience with youth development programming preferred;

- Excellent, transparent, and inclusive communicator who follows through and follows up; ability to share thoughts and observations; and who consistently treats others equitably and with respect;
- Well-organized and energetic, lead-by-example doer, committed to personal excellence;
- Knowledgeable professional but also an avid and enthusiastic learner willing to ask questions and pursue professional development for self as well as staff and volunteers, fostering an active culture of philanthropic service and teamwork;
